• The University of Glasgow offers a fantastic range of subjects that may be taken as single or joint degrees. Please consult the online undergraduate degree information, including the 'degrees and UCAS codes' section to view all joint subject combinations ensure and you use the correct course code when applying through UCAS. All undergraduate degrees are listed alphabetically here: https://www.gla.ac.uk/undergraduate/degrees/ . We have not included joint honours options due to space but these are also available. Progression from SWAP Humanities programmes must be to the faculty of arts or social sciences. Take care, especially with e.g., psychology, archaeology and geography UCAS codes. UCAS codes for science will not be accepted and students will be rejected. • Please also ensure you have read and understood the flexible degree structure, which is available here - https://www.gla.ac.uk/undergraduate/choosingyourdegree/artssciencesocialsciences/ . - For languages, please select the beginners' degree route. If you have previous study of a language to higher level then please contact the SWAP office. • The University of Glasgow has set up Articulation Programmes in partnership with local Colleges. These programmes allow students on bespoke college HNCs to articulate directly into Year 2 of certain undergraduate arts and social science degree programmes. Please see *further information at end of this document on p9 and also consult this web page: https://www.gla.ac.uk/study/wp/hncarticulation/#artsma%26socialsciencesma(socsci) .
